Dear Ms. Alfonso,

Thank you for sending us a copy of your song "Reading" on a cassette tape. It sounds great and surely will encourage listeners of it to consider placing more emphasis on reading.

On November 17th, 1989, Barnes & Noble kicked-off a "Children's Holiday Book Drive" with a celebrity reading event in our Barnes & Noble JR. store on 5th Avenue and 18th Street in Manhattan. Attending the event were Colleen Dewhurst, Tony Randall, Jane Curtin and a large number of adults and children who listened not only to the celebrities reading children's stories, but to your tape. We ended the event by playing "Reading" and everyone, especially the children, were enraptured by it.

Thanks for allowing us to play your song at this event. We'll certainly keep it in mind for future use.

Cordially,

Sharon G. Jonas
