Dear Mrs. Alfonso:

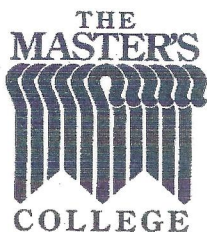

We were delighted that you took the initiative to contact the Division of Adult Education and Literacy to share your original song "Reading." The spirit that inspired you to write the song embodies the highest purposes of the Adult Education Act and the programs it supports. For that reason, it provided the highlight of our November 7 reception celebrating the Silver Anniversary of the Act and the Year of the Lifetime Reader. Meg's performance, and your explanatory remarks, were the most memorable moments of the evening.

Your personal courage and commitment are commendable, and your success an inspiration. It is experiences like yours that motivate other adults to improve their lives through learning.

Thank you for sharing your talent and story with those present at the reception. I hope the evening was as enjoyable and special for you and your family as you made it for all of us.

Sincerely,

Betsy Brand

Dear Margie and Meg,

Thank you so much for your help in making the SCILNET celebration of National Library Week such a success. As a matter of fact, many have said this year's celebration was the best we have ever held.

Many folks also commented on your testimony, Margie. They were quite moved by it. And Meg, your singing was so very delightful. I heard nothing but praises on your behalf.

Thank you again for your willingness to participate with us. May God richly bless you both as you continue to serve Him.

Sincerely,

Janet Tillman
